PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Again my friends, it's convention time. Let me go on record at this time, and perhaps stick my neck out just a little, but I'm predicting one of the greatest numismatic events ever held in these United States shall, and will, be held in Minneapolis, April 28-30. The CENTRAL STATES NUMISMATIC SOCIETY convention is rapidly becoming the convention of the year. I know that it is looked forward to by collectors and dealers alike from coast to coast. I'm anticipating seeing many of you there.

We, the officers and governors, have many details to work on and are looking forward to the suggestions that you may offer for the good of the organization. As many of you know, our bylaws will be changed in a few ways. For one change a committee has been working to change our method of election. This change will be one that will closely resemble the A.N.A. method of nominations and election. I feel that the Central States Numismatic Society must have this change to avoid any host club of "taking over" at the conventions. Many of you also know how this was tried at Detroit last year, and since I've received many letters of complaint. The change recommended is posted elsewhere in this issue.

Also, I feel that Article III, Section 1, should be changed to the extent that the President be allowed to appoint a new member to fill any vacancy created by death or resignation.This also is listed elsewhere in this issue.

Another item that I have found to be needed in the bylaws is an increase of the amount of money to be given to the Secretary for his general expenses. This should include enough to allow his paying his office secretary or the like, the amount needed for help issuing the CENTINEL.

As this issue come to you, there is serious thought of increasing the number of issues yearly of the CENTINEL. We know that many members wonder what they are getting by being a member of CSNS. I have been asked this question many times. Let me state that the fellowship, prestige, honor, and distinction are worth the dues, but, we offer a convention that is second to none and publish the CENTINEL twice yearly. We are working very hard to try to offer even more.

I suggest that everyone of you get a copy of the Numismatic News dated August 1, 1960, and read Chet Krause's editorial about organized numismatics. If you cannot get a copy, just write to me and I'll gladly mail you one.

Our Secretary, Dr. F. S. Epps, works entirely too hard and too long for the organization. I know of no one who puts in as much time for any group. If everyone would cooperate a little more and get your dues to him on time it would be of great help. Let's try and take care of this in Minneapolis.

Also, I'd like to commend our Vice President, Paul Olson, on the amount of work put in on this year's convention. Those of you who will be there will be the fortunate ones to see the actual work involved in such an undertaking.

Perhaps several of you who read the last issue of the CENTINEL will recall my plea for each of you to bring in a new member. Since then, I have written to over two hundred clubs and individuals in this central states area asking them to become a part of us. I do not know how many have responded, but at least these smaller clubs know of the Central States Numismatic Society and what we are trying to do. Without a large membership and a fair sized treasury, we, as officers and governors, cannot give you what we should like. May we hear from more of you?

Since the last issue we have lost one of our newer governors. Paul Schilling has passed away and the organization has certainly lost one who probably would have been one of the strongest members of this organization. Also, the death of Nate Gold, husband of Marjorie Gold who was elected to the governing board in Detroit was another blow to Central States numismatics. The officers, governors, and entire membership offer our condolences to Mrs. Schilling and Mrs. Gold.

This brings to a close the twenty-second year of the Central States Numismatic Society which for me has been filled with great pleasure in the close association I have had with a great number of you. I would have liked nothing better in this past year than to have visited personally with each of you and talked coins, but such has not been the case, so I take this means of personally inviting you to continue as a member of this society and attending the convention in Minneapolis. I feel it a great honor to serve you and want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for the confidence you have placed in me and my fellow officers. I can only say "thank you" and I shall continue to do my best for CSNS. With your continued support, we will have another great year and a great convention in 1962.

RAY O. LEFMAN, CSNS President

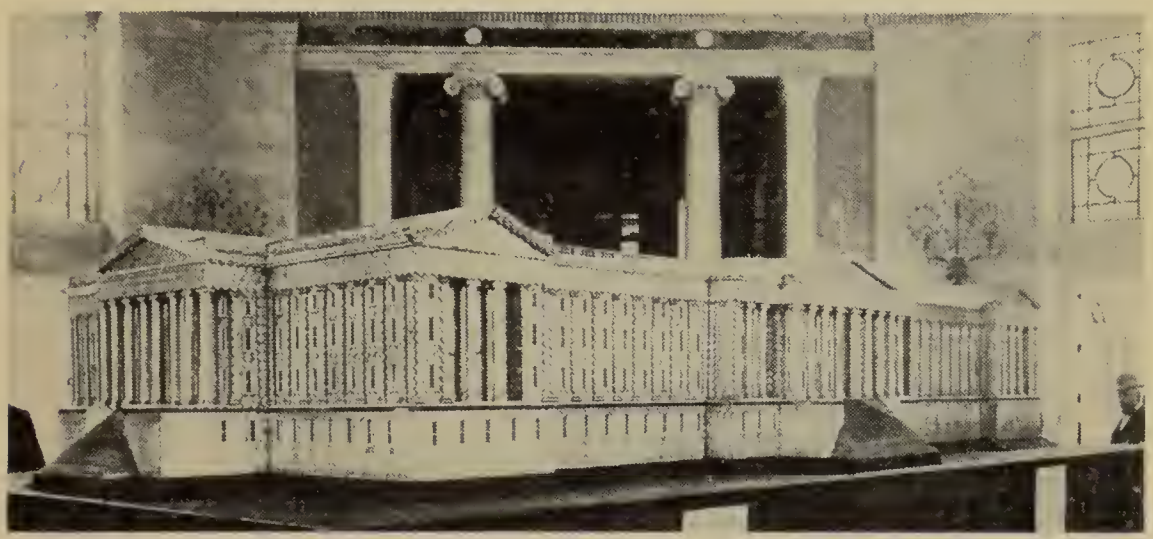
YOUR SECRETARY SPEAKS

CO-OPERATION:—I am now finishing four years as your Secretary. The caption of this short note relates to the exceptional liasson work between Central States and your Host Club for 1961. Punctuality is the essence of Courtesy and Efficiency. I always gave myself some credit for being punctual, but I have become acquainted with a man that can beat me, and I speak of none other than your General Chairman for the 1961 convention. It should be a "whiz" of a convention for smoothness of operation.

We will end this year with more members than has ever been previously recorded. My thanks to all officers, governors and members who have given your Secretary this co-operation the past year.

DR. F. S. EPPS, CSNS Secretary

"YES, IT'S BEEN DONE BEFORE"



U.S. Treasury building reproduced in souvenir Columbian half dollars in the rotunda of the Administration building of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Roll and bag collectors have been spoofed and kidded repeatedly about their places in numismatics and have been urged to exhibit their wares, if they could. Suggestions that they use their rolls of coins to build log cabins, make an old time corduroy road, reproduce Cape Canaveral and its missiles, illustrate Einstein's theory of relativity, and so on, have never been followed, so far as this writer knows. Like so many other "new" and "novel" ideas, however, this one, too,"has been done before."

Most Americans, and particularly those of us in the Central States area, are aware of the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus held in Chicago in 1893—the World's Columbian Exposition ("The World's Fair" is the way a midwesterner puts it). Coin collectors, in addition, reckon the beginning of American commemorative coins from that event—the Isabella quarter and the Columbian half dollar. The Federal Government struck two and a half million dollars worth of the latter and donated them to the Exposition which, in turn, offered the halves for sale at double face. At attractive stands in principal buildings within the grounds even more attractive girls pushed the sales of the souvenir coins.

As the result of someone's inspiration, a model of the Washington monument was constructed of these halves and placed under the clock in the Manufacturers building. This drew so much favorable attention that the Exposition's Finance Committee resolved to build a scale model of the U. S. Treasury building, using the Columbian pieces in the project. And so they did.

The exact size of the model, placed in the rotunda of the Administration building, was eighteen feet long, nine and a half feet wide, and three and a half feet high. It was covered completely by fifty thousand Columbian half dollars (Note: These coins were used singly, not in rolls!). This facsimile stood on a handsome base of paneled walnut four feet high and the whole was enclosed by an iron fence inside of which were four show cases from which young ladies sold the coins.

Crowds surrounded this exhibit and some visitors pronounced it "the most unique exhibit in the entire Exposition." We assume sales of the souvenir Columbians was brisk.—Elston G. Bradfield.

STATE COMMEMORATIVE MEDALS

Another of our Central States, North Dakota, is celebrating a centennial (of the formation of Dakota Territory) by the striking of an official medal. In two metals, bronze and nickel-silver, pieces are available at $1.50 each ($1.75 in sealed plastic) from Centennial Coin, Box 755, Bismarck, N. Dak. The famed Mandan Indian chief Four Bears is portrayed along with a covered wagon, pioneer homestead and wheat.

GERM REPELLENT BANK NOTES

The French Health Institute made a study a few years ago and found that bank notes contained a large number of bacteria and germs. The number of germs on bank notes was in direct proportion to the velocity of circulation. The Bank of France, according to Le Monde of February 22, has been the first in the world to place a disinfectant in the bank notes; the notes in use since the end of 1959 are germ repellent.

CLUBS SHOULD BELONG TO CSNS

The clubs listed here are members of the Central States Numismatic Society. If your club is not among them, it should be. Why don't you do something about it?

CSNS corporate members are the Chicago Coin Club, Cincinnati Numismatic Association, Cleveland Coin Club, College City Coin Club, Corn Belt Coin Club, Dayton Coin Club, Detroit Coin Club, Fox Valley Stamp and Coin Club, Heart of America Numismatic Association, Illinois Numismatic Society, Indiana Numismatic Association, Midwest Numismatic Association, Milwaukee Numismatic Society, North Kansas City Coin Club, Missouri Numismatic Society, Northwest Coin Club, Oak Park Coin Club, Peoria District Coin Club, Pierre Coin Club, Red River Valley Coin Club, Rockford Area Coin Club, Western Reserve Numismatic Club of Cleveland, Central Illinois Numismatic Society.

Keep in mind one thing—if your club would ever like to be host to a Central States Numismatics Society convention, it must be a member in good standing of the Society.

NUMISMATICS IN THE CENTRAL STATES AREA

That business in the numismatic world, at least in the Central States, is booming is evidenced by the increasingly larger staffs of publications and museums required to meet the demand. For instance, Rear Admiral Oscar H. Dodson, USN (Ret.), Director of the less-than-a-year-old Money Museum of the National Bank of Detroit, has recruited Charles R. Hoskins III as Assistant Director.

Chester Krause, publisher of the Numismatic News, recently added Ed Rochette to his staff as Managing Editor. Just a year ago Krause put into service a new wing to his newspaper's home in Iola, Wis.

R. S. Yeoman brought Kenneth Bressette from New England and named him Numismatic Editor of the expanding coin publications. In the ten months or so of Coin World's existence, Dick Johnson has had to increase the size of his payroll to handle circulation growth.

And the ever-growing Numismatic Scrapbook continues to add to the Hewitt Brothers' headaches (and pocketbooks) as it relentlessly reaches new plateaus requiring more manpower (or womanpower!). But the Hewitts don't mind—they either buy another Cadillac or a new boat.

Even The Numismatist has finally given in and added a part time Assistant to the Editor Glenn B. Smedley to give part time Editor Elston Bradfield a hand. Only the CENTINEL seems to go along with its part time Editor Bradfield as before, even in face of talk of moving from twice a year issue to a quarterly magazine! Might do it, too!
